

English Scottish Session

At Pinewoods

July 6-10

2009

Celebrate the 25th anniversary of ESS this summer. For your dancing pleasure, ESS presents three and a half exhilarating days of classes, workshops and parties featuring a unique and irresistible mix of dance and music from the English and Scottish traditions. We offer classes in English and Scottish country dance for newer and more experienced dancers, Longsword and Morris dance, Highland and Cape Breton Step, singing, a fiddle workshop, band class and, if the weather cooperates, our own ESS musical maypole.

Apply SOON to ensure your space at ESS 2009!

The application form is on the CDS-BC and RSCDS Boston websites or will be mailed, on request to Jean Farrington, jffar@verizon.net, 617-864-3410. Please fill out one form per person and send it to Tom Spilsbury, 618 Mississippi Avenue, Silver Spring, MD 20910, with a check payable in U.S. Funds to RSCDS-Boston Branch, with ESS on the memo line. Acceptance letters and information packets will be sent out in April.

Pinewoods Camp, in Plymouth, MA, nestles into a wooded area between Long Pond and Round Pond, both available for swimming. Classes are held in dance pavilions. The fantastic parties and delicious meals that are an ESS tradition take place in a camp house and dining hall at the edge of Long Pond. Housing is primarily in rustic cabins. Campers do simple chores, such as setting tables, to help keep costs down. ESS Committee: Jean Farrington, Sylvia Miskoe, Evelyn Murray and Tom Spilsbury. For further information contact Jean at 617-864-3410, jffar@verizon.net.
