

English Scottish Session

AT Pinewoods

July 3-7

2006

Start summer off with three and a half exhilarating days of classes, workshops and parties featuring a unique and irresistible mix of dance and music from the English and Scottish traditions. ESS offers classes in English and Scottish country dance for beginners and experienced dancers, Morris and Rapper ritual dance, and Highland and Cape Breton Step. PLUS, a special Fourth of July celebration and, if the weather cooperates, our own ESS musical maypole.

THE OUTSTANDING ESS 2006 STAFF

Dance: Gene Murrow (English Country); Ron Wallace (Scottish Country and Highland Step); Jim Morrison (Morris and Rapper); Doug Creighton (Cape Breton).

Music: Karen Axelrod, Music Director; Ken Allen, Doug Creighton, Daron Douglas, Dan Emery, Earl Gaddis, Anne Hooper, and Vince O'Donnell.

The cost of this fabulous session: $300 for adult members of RSCDS and CDS-BC, $320 for non-members. Ages 15-17, $230 for members, $250 non-members (must be accompanied by parent or guardian). Information on work exchange positions is available on request.

Pinewoods Camp, in Plymouth, MA, nestles into a wooded area between Long Pond and Round Pond, both available for swimming. Classes are held in dance pavilions. The fantastic parties and delicious meals that are an ESS tradition take place in a camp house and dining hall at the edge of Long Pond. Housing is primarily in rustic cabins. Campers do simple chores, such as setting tables, to help keep costs down. ESS Committee: Marianne Taylor, Jill Emery, Virginia Van Scoy, Jean Farrington. For further information contact Marianne at 603-463-7771, taylorgorman@juno.com, or Jean at 617-864-3410, jffar@rcn.com.
